MRS. GREEN'S CRAYON LECTURES

Drew Great Crowds and Were the Best Sermons Tucumcari Has Heard in Some Time

Our town has been very fortunate ir having the privilege of hearing Mrs. Maud L. Greene, the lady cartoonist preacher, in her impressive "Chalk Talks" Mrs. Greene's reputation is international she has won fame across the waters, she and her co-worker, Miss Henderson having spent several years abroad in the interests of the W. C. T. U.

Her lectures at the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon and the Baptist Church Sunday and Monday evenings, drew immense crowds that fully appreciated her splendid entertainment.

Mrs. Greene brings delightful novelty to the Temperence plat-

There is nothing that paints the lesson or tells the story and delights the audience as the pictures that grow under the magic chalk in the hands of this wonderful woman who draws in colors with a rapid and artistic touch, often wielding the chalk with both hands simultaneously.

Her "talks" were ai pointed as her "chalk;" for Mrs. Greene possesses an apt and keen sense of humor, which combined with her devotion to the cause and vast fund of information and experience make her lectures both unique and extremely interesting. The "Daily London Mail" calls her the cleverest lady cartooner in the United States. Lady Henry Somerset, the great English Temperence Worker, endorses Mrs. Greene's methods heartily and gives her warm praise.

Tucumcari should feel honored to have been visited by these distinguished women.

Saturday Market.

The ladies of the Home Mission Society of the M. E. church, south, held a market in Chapman's store on last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Hurley, assisted by Mrs. Crofford in charge.

A neat sum was realized for a few hours work and will be devoted to the work of papering and painting the church.
